You and your colleagues are invited to be our guest at the Western Manufacturing Technology Show 2011 Taking place this year at Edmonton Expo Center, Northlands, June 14-16. Please stop by and visit our booth to see our wide range of new products, literature, and services, including our 1st ever seal catalogue. Hi-Tech Seals has also added a milling machine and a laser engraver/cutting machine this year to our growing manufacturing center.

Hi-Tech Seals is pleased to be an Exhibitor and Technical presenter at this years WMTS.

Interested in Elastomers?

We invite you to join us June 16th, 8:00am – 12:00pm for an entertaining and informative technical presentation workshop titled "Elastomers and Sealing 101", presented by Brian Benkendorf and Said Ammar of Hi-Tech Seals. All machines require seals to properly perform; let us share some of our expertise and come learn about the exciting world of rubber and sealing. As a Hi-Tech Seals guest you can register at the door for this presentation at a discounted rate of $175.00 ($100.00 savings). Just bring this letter or your WMTS invitation, we hope to see you there.

Bring this special invitation letter to our booth and be entered into our door prize.

We look forward to seeing you at the Western Manufacturing Technology Show 2011. For additional show tickets or to arrange an appointment with a technician at booth, Please call us at 780-438-6055.

Sincerely,

Brian Benkendorf
